

Biography of the author

Sabrina Afrin Sharmin graduated in 2018 from the Faculty of Fisheries and Marine Science, Noakhali Science and Technology University (NSTU), Sonapur-3814, Noakhali; Bangladesh. She is doing her Master of Science in Fisheries Resource Management, Faculty of Fisheries, CVASU. She is looking forward to carry out research in her area of interest and enormous enthusiasm to develop her skills and expertise in the area of sustainable management of different water bodies. She is also keen to deliver her intense observation for drawing outline of marine fish larvae in different part of ocean in near future. In order to complete her research work, she conducted sample collection from “Rezu Khal estuary”, Cox’s Bazar coast, Bangladesh.