Acknowledgements

First and foremost, all praises and thanks to the Allah, the almighty, for the blessings throughout to complete the research work successfully for the degree of Master of Science (MS) in Dept. of Applied Chemistry & Chemical Technology under the Department of Food Science and Technology at Chattogram Veterinary and Animal Sciences University (CVASU). I would like to express my deep and sincere gratitude to my research supervisor, Professor Dr. Mohammad Mejbah Uddin, Dept. of Anatomy and Histology, Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, CVASU. It was really a great privilege and honor to work and study under his guidance. I understand it was impossible to complete the dissertation without his constructive supervision. I was also grateful to his proper guidance, valuable advice and encouragement for the research work. Finally, I sincerely thank to all the members of the department of Dept. of Applied Chemistry & Chemical Technology, Food Processing and Engineering department for their technical support throughout this research. Last but not least, I extremely grateful to my mother for her love, prayers, caring and sacrifices for educating and preparing me for my future. I am very much thankful to my wife and sisters for their love, understanding, inspiration, prayers and continual support to complete this research work.
